FORT WORTH DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

NO. 4:15-CR-151-O

ROBIE LYNN SIMS (28)

PLEA AGREEMENT PURSUANT TO FED. R. CRIM. PROC. 11(c)(1)(C) WITH WAIVER OF APPEAL

Robie Lynn Sims ("Defendant"), Lance Evans, Defendant's attorney, and the United States of America ("Government"), agree as follows:

1. Rights of Defendant: Defendant understands that she has the right
 - a. to plead not guilty;
 - b. to have a trial by jury;
 - c. to have his guilt proven beyond a reasonable doubt;
 - d. to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to call witnesses in her defense; and
 - e. against compelled self-incrimination.

2. Waiver of Rights and Plea of Guilty: Defendant waives these rights and pleads guilty to the offense alleged in Count One of the superseding information, charging a violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1071, that is, concealing a person from arrest.
Defendant understands the nature and elements of the crimes to which she is pleading guilty, and agrees that the factual resume she has signed is true and will be submitted as evidence.

3. Sentence: The penalties the Court can impose include:

- a. imprisonment for a period of not more than five (5) years;
- b. a fine not to exceed $250,000;
- c. a term of supervised release of not more than three (3) years, which may be mandatory under the law and will follow any term of imprisonment. If the defendant violates any condition of the term of supervised release, the Court may revoke such release term and require that the defendant serve an additional period of confinement;
- d. a mandatory special assessment of $100;
- e. restitution to victims or to the community, which may be mandatory under the law, and which Defendant agrees may include restitution arising from all relevant conduct, not limited to that arising from the offense of conviction alone; and
- f. costs of incarceration and supervision.

4. Court's Sentencing Discretion and Role of the Guidelines: The Defendant understands that the sentence in this case will be imposed by the Court after consideration of the United States Sentencing Guidelines. The Defendant has reviewed the guidelines with her attorney, but understands no one can predict with certainty the outcome of the Court's consideration of the guidelines in this case. Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(C), FED. R. CRIM. P., the parties agree that the length of any prison term imposed by the Court in this case should be no greater than eighteen (18) months' imprisonment. The defendant reserves the right to request a sentence below eighteen (18) months, but understands that so long as the Court imposes a sentence no greater than eighteen (18) months, this agreement will be satisfied. If the Court accepts this plea agreement, this provision is binding on the Court. Other than the agreed maximum term of imprisonment, the Court remains free to determine other aspects of the sentence as it deems appropriate. Pursuant to Rule 11(c)(5), FED. R. CRIM. P., if the Court rejects this plea agreement, Defendant will be allowed to withdraw her guilty plea. If Defendant declines to withdraw her guilty plea, the disposition of the case may be less favorable than that contemplated by this agreement.

5. Mandatory special assessment: Defendant agrees to pay to the U.S. District Clerk the amount of $100.00, in satisfaction of the mandatory special assessment in this case.

6. Defendant's agreement: Defendant shall give complete and truthful information and/or testimony concerning his participation in the offense of conviction. Upon demand, Defendant shall submit a personal financial statement under oath and submit to interviews by the government and the U.S. Probation Office regarding his capacity to satisfy any fines or restitution.

7. Government's Agreement: The government will not bring any additional charges against Defendant based upon the conduct underlying and related to the Defendant's plea of guilty. After sentence is imposed, the government will move to dismiss any remaining charges against the defendant. This agreement is limited to the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of Texas and does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities, nor does it prohibit any civil or administrative proceeding against Defendant or any property.

8. Violation of Agreement: Defendant understands that if he violates any provision of this agreement, or if his guilty plea is vacated or withdrawn, the Government will be free from any obligations of the agreement and free to prosecute Defendant for all offenses of which it has knowledge. In such event, Defendant waives any objections based upon delay in prosecution. If the plea is vacated or withdrawn for any reason other than a finding that it was involuntary, Defendant waives objection to the use against him of any information or statements he has provided to Government and any resulting leads.

9. Voluntary Plea: This plea of guilty is freely and voluntarily made and is not the result of force or threats, or of promises apart from those set forth in this plea agreement. There have been no guarantees or promises from anyone as to what sentence the Court will impose.

10. Waiver of right to appeal or otherwise challenge sentence: Defendant waives her rights, conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1291 and 18 U.S.C. § 3742, to appeal from her conviction and sentence. He further waives her right to contest her conviction and sentence in any collateral proceeding, including proceedings under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 and 28 U.S.C. § 2255. Defendant, however, reserves the rights (a) to bring a direct appeal of (i) a sentence exceeding the statutory maximum punishment, or (ii) an arithmetic error at sentencing, (b) to challenge the voluntariness of his plea of guilty or this waiver, and (c) to bring a claim of ineffective assistance of counsel.

11. Representation of Counsel: Defendant has thoroughly reviewed all legal and factual aspects of this case with her lawyer and is fully satisfied with that lawyer's legal representation. Defendant has received from her lawyer explanations satisfactory to her concerning each paragraph of this plea agreement, each of her rights affected by this agreement, and the alternatives available to her other than entering into this agreement. Because she concedes that she is guilty, and after conferring with his lawyer, Defendant has concluded that it is in her best interest to enter into this plea agreement, and all of its terms, rather than to proceed to trial in this case.

12. Entirety of Agreement: This document is a complete statement of the parties' agreement and may not be modified unless the modification is in writing and signed by all parties.

AGREED TO AND SIGNED this ____ day of _____, 2015.
